

KIMBERLY E. AINSWORTH

Executive Director

Kimberly E. Ainsworth was named as the Executive Director of the Greater Boston Federal Executive Board in October 1998. A career employee of EPA New England, Ainsworth served as the Federal Executive Board's Coordinator from 1996 to 1999.

Ms. Ainsworth received a Bachelor's Degree in Communications from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1991 and a Master of Science degree in Human Resources Development from Northeastern University's Bouve College in 1996. She began her Federal career as a Presidential Management Intern in 1996.

During the two year PMI appointment, she did extensive work with Vice President Gore's National Partnership for Reinventing Government (NPR), serving on both the Vice President's Welfare to Work Coalition to Sustain Success and Conversations with America Teams.

Kim has been a member of the American Society for Public Administration's Massachusetts Chapter Council since 1998 and was elected Vice President in 2001. In June 2000, she was elected as an at-large member of the national Local Federal Coordinating Committee. This committee is responsible for setting policy relating to the nation's largest workplace charitable campaign and overall management and oversight of more than 100 local Combined Federal Campaigns.

As Executive Director, Kim is responsible for the day to day operations of the FEB, all aspects of program management and acts as chief policy advisor to the Chair and Board of Directors. She commonly represents the Federal community at-large and defines issues and initiatives of common interest to the Federal community. A native Bostonian, Kim currently resides in Charlestown, MA.
